

Melanie C, Take Your Pleasure

Do you feel I should say goodbye

That will not be necessary

Here's a reason why

Because your dreams

Of my premature demise

Will be overshadowed

By the truth you cannot hide

It's so simple to me

That revenge ain't so sweet

Twist and turns you

So I believe

You take your pleasure

From my pain

Inflict your damage

I expect your delusion

Is part of you hating yourself

So take your pleasure

From my pain

To obliterate my world

Isn't gonna happen

That's not what I deserve

With the belief

That you bullied out of me

Did it satisfy you

Did it make you feel complete

I would rather be free

Keep my integrity

There's no price

That's the bottom line

You take your pleasure

From my pain

Inflict your damage
I expect your delusion
Is part of you hating yourself
So take your pleasure
From my pain
Inflict your damage
I expect your delusion
Is part of you hating yourself
So take your pleasure
From my pain
Say what you want
That's all in vain
It will be falling on deaf ears again
Say what you like
This is my life
You don't understand what I need to survive

You take your pleasure
From my pain
Inflict your damage
I expect your delusion
So take your pleasure
From my pain
You take your pleasure
From my pain
Inflict your damage
I expect your delusion
So take your pleasure
From my pain
So take your pleasure
From my pain

So take your pleasure

From my pain

So take your pleasure

From my pain
