

Melanie Doane, Never Doubt I Love

In an age of troubles
In an age of uncertainty
In an age of dwindling hope
You still have me

No matter where you are
No matter how far from home
No matter if you're lost
You still have me

Doubt that the stars are fire
Doubt that the earth doth move
Doubt truth to be a liar
But never doubt I love

Never doubt I love

You may lose things dear to you
You may feel naked and alone
You may think you're losing your faith
But you still have me

Remember when you're tired
Remember when you're defeated
They can take all your dreams
But you still have me

Doubt that the stars are fire
Doubt that the earth doth move
Doubt truth to be a liar
But never doubt I love

Never doubt I love

Doubt that the stars are fire
Doubt that the earth doth move
Doubt the truth to be a liar
But never doubt I love

Never doubt I love (x2)

I know your pain
I won't pretend
Serve God, love me
And mend
