

Melanie Fiona, Ay Yo

I wanna thank you for everytime you tried to get the best of me inside how many times I compromised I don't do this for the glory or for what people might say I'm gonna do this my own way starting today theres nothing that you can tell me I'll show you i was born ready and I say ay yo rise up lemme see your head high and if youre wit it put your hands up in the sky la da di di ay yo ay yo ay yo ay yo and I'm gon' rock it to the fullest in this life so imma give all i got before I die la da di di da

every woman has a purpose nothing happens by chance this is your life here in your hands you gotta fight to take the stand and I know you might not see it but the high can fall so fast when youre in first don't forget the last you gotta give it all you have oh life can be unforgiving i'm fighting to keep on living

and I say ay yo
la da da ay yo ay yo ay yo ay yo
and im gon' rock it to the fullest in this life
la da di di da da di if you have a light then hold it up and let it shine would you make the choice to meet your destiny or let this lifetime pass you by only you can make it whats yours is yours no one can take it if you have a dream something you believe it's time to set it free

la da di di da da ay yo ay yo ay yo ay yo and I'm gon' rock it to the fullest in this life
la da di di da da
