

Melanie Garside, Big White Room hurt me? well i can hurt me some more find me? i pushed my face into the sand but through the glass i saw them forming start to be drawn through the glass i saw them fade disappear and through the glass i heard them talking there but i don't want to try close my eyes move them away the big white room

the big white room
now i'm closing shutting down i've built this castle in the sand keeps me warm look around me on the floor there's icy waters all around but all through the glass i heard them laughing through the glass i saw them play and through the glass i watched them dancing stay on the floor but i don't want to see close my eyes somehow i just got to find
the big white room
the big white room
reaching out the glass is closing in i'm going to reach on over to the to the other side and clutch in the mirror going to see the light formulate i'm going to i'm going to i'm going to i'm going and through the glass the picture's clearing cleaning away through the glass the image fades
the big white room
are you the big white room?
the big white room
i'm going to watch them fade i'm going to turn away
