

Meligrove Band, Ages and Stages

You came and lit up my heart
And then you disappear
I was then afraid of the dark
And the footsteps that I'd hear

I need, I need to know
You're still around
And I'm not alone
I need, I need to know
You have been left
And I'm not alone

Oh no
Maybe, I've lost my mind
Were we crazy
To think we could try

Is it time
For what we feel inside

You said that there would be changes
And we should lend a hand
Universal ages and stages
Supply for what we demand
I need, yeah, I need to know
Is it for real or some kind of joke
I need, I need to know
Is there a glimpse, a fragment of hope

Oh no
Maybe we've lost our minds
Were we crazy
To think we could try

Were we crazy
Were we crazy
Were we crazy
Or
Or is this the beginning
Or is this the beginning
