

Meligrove Band, Isle of Yew

I feel like I've been living alone
I guess I must be doing it wrong

Ooh, I, I think about it
Ooh, I, I dream about it
Ooh never want to be alone again

I love you
And hope you'll come through
I hope you will come through

You don't have to get so down
If you look you'll see I'm still around

Ooh, I, I'm here for you
Ooh, I will never leave you
You don't have to get so down

I love you
And know you'll pull through
I know you will pull through
