

Melissa Dori Dye, Mystery

well i i don't even know why you said you wouldn't leave and now we've lost our way don't see is that how you want it to be everything you took from me and if this don't seem right then why are you in disguise

ohhh you are a mystery
that's how it will be ohh you are a mystery
a mystery to me

in time everything will feel right after you made it so wrong and pleasures are paradise in life but for now you'll have to go and leave me alone but when you see the light you will end your fight

that's how it will be
