

Melissa Etheridge, Good Girls And Boys

I woke up in Atlanta
No, it was
St. Louie, Missou
Still wearing the T-shirt
I slept in I'm still thinkin' 'bout you
If ever I needed
Miami Beach
It would surely be tonight
But I'm headed for Cleavland
I've got to believe in that sweet paradise

All I ever wanted
was to get into the party
with the good girls and boys
Chasing the dream
The peaches and cream
of the good girls and boys
But it was always Rock and Roll
and there was never really
any other choice
So now I stand here and play
everyday
for the good girls and boys

hey, hey, hey, hey

You know I love
New Jersey
I'm crazy about Chicago too
and all the margaritas in Texas
make a woman feel crazy cool
If ever I needed
San Francisco
She was always there for me
But I've never been so high as when I'm up all night in
New York City

All I ever wanted was to get into the party
with the good girls and boys
Chasing the dream
But it was always
any other choice
everyday

hey, hey, hey, hey

(All night)
I dreamed in

Kansas City
I got saved in Boston
last night
I drove straight through to Malibu
where I never looked back If ever I need something to be lead on,
wait for the noise
and then I'll take your hand and I'll count off the band with the good..girls.. and boys..

1! 2! 3! 4!

All I ever wanted was to get into the party
Chasing the dream
But it was always
Rock and Roll
any other choice
everyday

hey, hey, hey, hey

All I ever wanted
hey
All I ever wanted
All I ever wanted

All I ever wanted was to get into the party
yeah
All I ever wanted

All I ever wanted

a'right..
That's all...
