

Melissa Etheridge, Move Over

Ah yeah
You say that its over baby
You say that its over now
But still you hang around me, come on
Won't you move over

You know that I need a man, baby, I told you so
You know that I need a man
But when I ask you to you just tell me
That maybe you can

Please don'tcha do it to me babe, no
Please don'tcha do it to me now
You take all the love I offer
Or just let me be

I ain't quite ready for walking
Ain't quite a ready for walking
What will you do with your life
Life just dangling?

Make up your mind
You're playing with me
Make up your mind
You're playing with me
Either be my loving man
Or let me, honey, let me be
