

Melodifestivalen, Karl Martindahl - Love turns water

A little luck is here tonight
I can use it
A little faith is by my side
To take me through it
I believe that I'm gonna win
I believe that miracles don't end

Oh, it's happening, I'm falling in
Giving in, feels so good
Love turns water into wine
It's walking in, everything will begin
Just let it in, feels so good
Love turns water into wine

And everything will be alright
I can do it
And every dream will come alive
Nothing to it
I believe that I'm gonna win
I believe that miracles don't end

Oh, it's happening, I'm falling in
Giving in, feels so good
Love turns water into wine
It's walking in, everything will begin
Let it in, feels so good
Love turns water into wine
And it tastes like heaven

I can walk on water
I can walk through anything
I let it in

Ooh
Oooooohh

Love turns water into wine, yeah, yeah
It's walking in, everything will begin
Just let it in, feels so good
Love turns water into wine, woah
It's happening, I'm falling in Just giving it in
Love turns water into wine
Love turns water into wine
And it tastes like heaven
