

Melody Club, Wildhearts

you can do what you want you can tear me apart you can take what you want but you can't have my heart it's been so long since i rested my head on the ground will you feel regret

when i'm not around

and the stars never shine for the wild hearts and we lost it all so fast we were not meant to last

you've been wandering on your own and now you're coming home oh and time is never on your side and your heart is growing old and tired
