

Melt-Banana, Like A White Bat In A Box, Dead M

Check out if you see one just in case,
Dead matters go on and on and on

Check if you see one
Check just in case
It's dead

See, a white bat in a box
it's skinny like a bone
His name is "pain";
what a name he got! it's pity like alone
"Where did my eyes go?" he goes
"Where's my cave?" he goes
So I go, "You don't have one";
So I go, "You don't have one";
He just stays

Hide in a pain
Hide in a pain
Hide in a jail, like a lofty shack
Hide in a pain
Hide in a pain
Hide in a wail, like a lofty shack
Dead matters go on

See, a white frog on a shelf
it's stinky like a cheese
His name is "shame";
what a name he lost! it's waste like blame
"When is my meal?" he goes
"When can I swim?" he goes
So I go, "You won't get one";
So I go, "You won't get one";

Hide in a pain
Hide in a pain
Hide in a jail, like a lofty shack
Hide in a pain
Hide in a pain
Hide in a wail,
But I don't wanna burn it down
Dead matters go on

First one was dead
Next one was a crap
Third one was killed
No one wants the next one
Fourth one was a pig
Fifth one was damned
Next one was a freak
Who the hell wants the next one?
Just it goes on...
Who the hell wants the next one?

See, a white skull on the wall
it's shinny like a god
His name is "greed";
what a good name he got!
It's just like how he used to be
"Where's my soul?" he weeps like
"Where's my gold?" he rages
So I go, "You just sold one";
So I go, "You don't need one";
'cause you're dead
