

Melvins, Amazon (Part 2)

by the time you're natural by the time you die
I'll take my head and spin it for you I'll just look around and I call you liar
and I call you dead you come and poisoned all the things that I once set up on everybody's hungry
everybody's high
we'll sit around and ask ourself if it was all a lie and I already told you and I already say but you have got to know yourself and so I let it slide can you get together can you hold my hand
it takes forever for the sound to get around and I already love you and I already want
but will we all just sore
