

MELYZ, Look At Me Now

Punched my way through
Bruises on both my knees
Strayed from my truth
I allowed myself to be drawn in fears

Pushed my way through
Bleeding my mind away
Starting from new
Minor set backs but I got back up on my feet

You buried me deep underground
Thought I would lay there still
You buried me deep underground
Never thought I'd break free

You buried me deep underground
Thought I would lay there still
You buried me deep underground
Thought I would give in
But look at me now

Pulled myself through
Tangled in your deceit
Bitter things you do
You can keep my shit, Imma keep moving

Pulled myself up
Closed all my open scars
Well I don't give a f*ck
Try to stop me now, I will keep on showing up

You buried me deep underground
Thought I would lay there still
You buried me deep underground
Thought I would give in

You buried me deep underground
Thought I would lay there still
You buried me deep underground
Never thought I'd break free
But look at me now
