

Memento, Beginnings

what have you done?
yes I'm talking to you
your only son
the one you dressed in nails I know how hard it is for you to show show your love
for your love I take the nails and thorns
that will never be enough
still I beg and crawl
for your God-damned love I've just begun
to understand your ways
you need blood
so no one goes away
I know how hard it is for you to show
turn the other cheek again Will I?
Maybe let me in this time
show your love
still I beg and crawl
for father and son I'm your son
for your God-damned love
