

Memento Mori, Morbid Fear

In your dreams
the sights they submit
these shadows will constantly glow.

Deeper you fall
into the pit
where madness will constantly flow.

Twisting your mind
a vision obscure
the islands will silently crawl (silently crawl)
Into the unknown
sleep my child
sail the seas of neverland deep within your soul
wayward child
morbid fears are close at hand.

Close your eyes
the moment is here
it's time to face what you fear.

Something weird, evil it senses unseen but strong is its presence drowning in fear of things to come time is short, the threshold is near.

Insanity reigns in dark hidden what's left reality the outcome is clear (the outcome is clear)
they are closing in.

Fade away - into the unknown.
Fade away - sail the seas of neverland.
Fade away - deep within your soul.
Fade away - morbid fears are close at hand.
