

Memento, Saviour

we tried so hard to erase you we tried so hard to pretend you were dead I walked the earth just to escape you now I walk the earth just to touch you again come on down, my saviour, my failure to save myself I betrayed you these swollen lips whisper only for revenge to spite myself I betrayed you if I stop the lies, will I see you in the end? swimming through the red nothing up ahead
I cannot buy a friend
I just came here to tell you I miss you
my saviour, I failed you
