

Men Without Hats, Lost Forever

unheard of love was dreaming inside her hair the facts of life and me were screaming i wasn't there
so we took upon myself to swallow what i should see
and if the world should beg to follow i'd disagree

we took her head outside and waited until the rain
called all the dreams anticipated and never came she held him in her arms you wondered is it to be
is love an everlasting thunder
or are we

are we lost forever
are we lost forever
lost forever
are we lost forever
are we lost forever
lost forever

unseen of worlds existing inside the waves
of all unfolding in the mystery in secret ways
the dreams are all becoming clearer
the clouds are green is any way a wee bit nearer
or are we

are we lost forever
are we lost forever
are we lost forever
lost forever
are we lost forever
are we lost forever
are we in lust forever
lost forever
