

Menswear, I'll Sing For You

Come over here and tell me nothing matters
You're only wasting time 'cos all your thoughts are scattered
The only thing you dream about is sleeping
It's sad state of affairs
Going through your life without a care
Come over here and tell me what you're thinking
There isn't a single thing that you believe in
It's sad state of affairs
And I'll sing for you my friend
If you keep listening 'til the end
The only thing you dream about is sleeping
There isn't a single thing that you believe in
It's sad state of affairs
And I'll sing for you my friend
And I'll sing for you my friend
And I'll sing for you my friend
If you keep listening 'til the end
