

Menswear, Little Miss Pinpoint Eyes

she's got a brand new bicycle sucking on a toxic icicle hold on tight and grit your teeth she's speeding her way through hampstead heath let's not generalize
it's not our place to question why little miss pinpoint eyes your bain has fried goodbye!
she's lacking in grey particle's her life is totally farticle the lowest high she found was brown she's crawling around alleys in camden town
let's not generalize
goodbye!
she melts shit on metal spoons alleviates that feeling of doom and gloom (yeah, yeah) float away on a hot air balloon she's chasing around to disco tunes
let's not generalize
goodbye!
