

Menswear, Silver Tongue

Silver tongue you're not home now
Shining stars right behind now
When I came it knocked me off of my feet
When we left I felt so incomplete
Silver tongue early start now
I walk 'round the world for one smile
When we left the world collapsed on me
Now you're here life could be so sweet
Silver tongue you're not home now
Shining stars right behind now
When I came it knocked me off of my feet
When we left I felt so incomplete
Silver tongue early start now
I walk 'round the world for one smile
When we left the world collapsed on me
Now you're here life could be so sweet
