

Mental As Anything, Bus Ride

(Martin Plaza)

I wouldn't speak ill of you

That would be unfair

I could not do that again

Someone's always there, someone's always there

Offer me a role, with dignity,

Offer me control with dignity,

Offer me a role, won't you offer me control.

Why do you pretend

To be so naïve

Give me one excuse

For being allowed to breathe

Offer me a role.

Don't wanta be a big wheel

But I sure won't be a slave

Don't wanta be a big wheel

But I sure won't be a slave,

Won't be a slave.

I have you alone, you alone to thank

You taught me how to swim,

When you made me walk the plank.

Offer me a role,

Won't you offer me control,

Offer me control.

Don't wanta be a big wheel

But I sure won't be your slave

Don't wanta be a big wheel

But I sure won't be your slave...
