

Mentallo & The Fixer, Sacrilege

I question why, six million died, in the blink of an eye
How can this be
Word to the wise, cut you down to size, brings you to your knees
Sacrilegiously
Sacrilegiously
Sacrilegiously

Radical tension sky high, bleeding from your eye
A desperate search To find, a meeting of the minds
Tears from a child's eyes, Just another sign of the times
Society in decline, city aflame in the night sky

Ignorance to blind
This you can't deny
Genocide applied
Humanities crimes

Sacrilegiously speaking bind & intertwine indiscriminately
Intelligently understanding.
