

Mercury Rising, Renaissance

[Prayer Part 2]

How many times will I plead on bended knee before I transcend to the one you would have me to be? .
Bless us now as we build anew
Grant us values to hold on to regardless of the evils that men do .
From perseverance purity shines through
In this brave new world there's no home sweet home, and so we carry on building Rome .
Unto you we will make a joyful sound
Unto you our praises will abound
Unto you we combine both mind and heart
Understanding they can't survive apart
What it's worth to me... Eternity! .
How many times will I plead on bended knee before I transcend to the one you would have me to be
In this brave new world there's no home sweet home and so we carry on building Rome