

Mercy Fall, Not Broken Down

Lying awake with her ear to the phone
Listens to him but a dream of her own
Shes trying but she just cant get through

Forgetting the pain and forgiving the lies
Convincing the angels that she sees inside
Shes crying is she giving up to soon

Angels sorry didnt mean to run
Angels hiding losing everyone

(Chorus)
Damaged, words that were said
No apologies this time
You/We are lost not broken
Lost not broken down

Whatever comes to me
I find its so impossible to see
Its difficult for me

Changing her life cause he told her she could Chasing her dreams cause he said that she should Shes buying whatever to get to you
