

Mercyful Fate, Leave My Soul Alone

Oh, yeah oh yeah

Now hear my song

Sirens calling, people leaving the streets

The cops are coming, I don't know what I did

Why don't you get away, leaving my soul alone. Maybe another day, you get a reason too X2

Oh, yeah oh yeah

I'm running free, they won't get me alive

No one can see, I did it to survive

Why don't you get away, leaving my soul alone. Maybe another day you get a reason too X2

Oh yeah oh yeah

This is what I did

I killed a friend, for making love to my girl

This is the end, a bullet from my gun

Why don't you get away leaving my soul alone. Maybe another day you get a reason too X2

I can't belong

Kill
