

MercyMe, I Know

Where do i begin with what to say I've played this conversation in my head so many times I'm certainly not claiming to know everything but what i do will save your life.

i know, i know that God is able i know, i know that He still reigns i know, i know that love has found a way.

No matter what it is you're going through even if you think you're far beyond where hope can see i know there is a hand that's reaching out for you because He did the same for me [back to chorus] it wasn't that long ago when my own world fell apart, it fell apart and everything here inside of me said to let go, you must let go i found my self crying out to the One who knows my heart, He knows your heart and holding tight to the few things that i know [back to chorus]
