

Meredith Edwards, Ready To Fall

I get a feelin' I can't explain
Whenever your eyes meet mine
Heart spins in circles
And I lose all space and time
And now that we're standing face to face
Something tells me it's gonna be OK

CHORUS

And I'm ready to fall in love tonight
Ready to hold my heart open wide
I can't promise forever but baby I'll try
Yes I'm ready to fall in love tonight

I know you've been watching
Choosing your moment
I've been dreamin' of that day
No one before you has gotten to me this way
And now that we're standing face to face
There's something that I need to say

CHORUS

Nothing is certain
This I know
Wherever we're headin'
I'm ready to go

I can't promise forever but baby I'll try
Yes I'm ready to fall in love tonight
