

Merk & Kremont, Hands Up (feat. DNCE) hey, I'm standing in the bed we made guessing that we felt apart I'm kicking all the sheets away oh. I'm jumping off a sinking ship I guess this is where this starts I wouldn't know that u t would end like this you never make me decent you never make me strong you never let me finish no, you

I've thrown my hands up I've already made my mind up never get down on my luck never get down on my hands up
I've already made my mind up sorry, I've messed your life up I'ma get on with mine cause the clock keeps ticking mine
oh. cause the clock keeps ticking oh,. cause clock keeps ticking hey, I'm driving down a dead-end street do I let another dragon fly? gonna sweep another off her feet ih I'm jumping off a sinking ship io guess this is where this starts

I've thrown my hands up
hands up
mine
oh. cause the clock keeps ticking
