

Merle Haggard, Colorado

COLORADO

Writer Dave Kirny

There's a place where Mother Na-ture's got it all together,
She knows just when to let wild flowers bloom,
Some-how she always seems to know exactly what she's doin'
And The Lord saw fit to furnish elbow room.

Chorus >>>
Have you ever been down to Colorado ?
I spend a lot of time there in my mind.
And if God doesn't live in Colo-rado,
I'll bet that's where he spends most of his time.

I'd love to be there watching, early in the morning,
The sun comes up and crowns the mountain king.
If by chance you dare to be there, high upon the mountain,
I swear that you can hear the angels sing.
