If you've got time to say goodbye have mercy on a guy that's gonna miss you
I know you're in a hurry but consider all the hurt I'm going through
Let me brace my heart so I can face the part that I've been dreading for so long
If you've got time to say goodbye then I'll promise I won't cry till you're gone
I know a man should never show his feelings
And I should pretend I'm glad you're leaving
If you've got time to say goodbye...
