IF YOU'VE GOT TIME (TO SAY GOODBYE) (Merle Haggard) '71 Tree Publishing, BMI

If you've got time to say goodbye have mercy on a guy that's gonna miss you I know you're in a hurry but consider all the hurt I'm going through Let me brace my heart so I can face the part that I've been dreading for so long If you've got time to say goodbye then I'll promise I won't cry till you're gone I know a man should never show his feelings And I should pretend I'm glad you're leaving If you've got time to say goodbye...
