LOOK OVER ME

(Merle Haggard)

If some time we're thrown together by our friends
And we're forced to see each other once again
I may lose control in spite of how I try please look over me while I cry
If I'm fool enough to keep on loving you
After all the grieve and heartache I've been through
Be kind enough to help me save my pride please look over me while I cry
Pretend you're not aware of how you torture me
And with your help maybe no one else will notice me
Be kind enough to help me save my pride please look over me while I cry
Pretend you're not aware...
