

Merle Haggard, To Each His Own

A rose must remain with the sun and the rain or its lovely promise won't come true
To each his own to each his own and my own is you
What good is a song if the words just don't belong
And a dream must be a dream for two
No good alone to each his own and for me there's you
If a flame is to grow there must be a glow to open each door there's a key
I need you I know I can't let you go your touch means too much to me
Two lips must insist and two more to be kissed or they'll never know what love can do
To each his own I've found my own one and only you
