Meshell Ndegeocello, Thankful

Just wanna be happy

Motherfuckers like fancy things Big houses, Big cars, Like movie stars Gotta have everything Numb myself to the suffering

Just wanna be happy And thankful Not just Try to get through Just wanna be happy, Thankful Not just Try to get through

Should I lie
Should I cheat
Turn on my tv
Tell me what I want,
What I need
I lose my faith sometimes
I lose my faith sometimes, yeah

So much suffering for Fancy cars, Big houses, Everything I lose my faith sometimes I lose my faith sometimes, yeah

Just want to be happy And thankful Not just Try to get through

Just want to be happy And thankful Just want to be happy And thankful Try to get through

You're all I need Lay your burden down Ease my sadness You're all I need

I lose my faith sometimes I lose faith sometimes Just trying to get through I lose faith sometimes

You're all I need Lay your burden down I lose faith sometimes You're all I need I'm thankful That I feel you

Ease your sadness You're all I need Lay your burden down Ease my sadness You're all I need Lay my burden down

I laid my burden down.
