

Mest, Jaded (These Years) (Real)

There's a time and place for everything
There's a reason why certain people meet
There's a destination for everyone
What's the explanation when we're done

All the summer nights spent wondering
So many questions asked but no one's answering
Would it be okay if I left today?
Took my chances on what you said was wrong

I'm jaded, stupid, and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret
These years spent so faded and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret these years
I'll never regret these years

Now here I sit so far away
Remembering all our memories
It's times like these that I miss you most Remembering when we were so close

I'm jaded, stupid, and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret
These years spent so faded and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret these years

I'll never forget the places we've been
You and I
Our lives are slipping away
Don't want to let time pass us by
By...

I'm jaded, stupid, and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret
These years spent so faded and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret

I'm jaded, stupid, and reckless
Not sorry and I'll never regret
These years
