

Mest, Until I Met You (Real)

Shaking on the outside
Because of what I'm feeling inside
My chest is fucking hurting and my stomach's fucking burning
I laugh when you are crying and say inside you're dying
Because you gave away to early
Your fucking pain is so deserving

Don't wanna take it
Because I fucking hate it
Why do we talk when all we do is argue?
Nothing to be said
Except you make me wish I was dead
This time I'm breaking off for good

I've never felt this way before
Open chest, heart on the floor
I never wished that I was dead
Until I met you

I fucking hate the way I'm feeling
Because my fucking life's not changing
You put me down when you stopped caring
Your fucking misery's my healing

Don't wanna take it
Because I fucking hate it
Why do we talk when all we do is argue?
Nothing to be said
Except you make me wish I was dead
This time I'm breaking off for good

I've never felt this way before
Open chest, heart on the floor
I never wished that I was dead

I've never felt this way before
Open chest, heart on the floor
I never wished that I was dead
Until I met you

(Until I met you)
I've never felt this way before
Open chest, heart on the floor
I never wished that I was dead
Until I met you

I've never felt this way before
Until I met you

I've never felt this way before
Until I met you
