

Metallica, Crying Of The Dead

i hear these sounds in the day light.never heard them before in my life.i buried the grave of the dead the dead...the dead is coming out.the deadthe dead is eating me alive.save me mastersave from the dead...from the dead... the dead's eaten me alive.i'm ready to go to the grave.but the grave is not accepting me.neither can i can't bear the crying of the dead...

but its ringing on my door...so i'm ready to die..
and cry like the dead.
