

Metro Station, Make Believe

Well I sleep with you but you dream of him and pretend every touch of my hand is his you lead me on in the same trip
I can tell by your eyes what you truly feel, oh I tuck you in
after you drink
I take advantage of this opportunity
but I lay awake thinking of her and you just put your hands on me as you have before
I am yours
and you are mine
just as we go on pretending tonight we both know this is make believe I dont believe you when you said
I swept you off your feet We'll both fake it
pretend we'll make it
make it as we have
with a past lover x2
Close your eyes
and drift fast asleep
as I pleasure you
with my company
my eyes are fake because I'm staying awake how can I sleep dreaming of her with you next to me?
We'll both fake it
with a past lover x2
