

Mew, City Voices

From the sound of approaching footsteps, i got scared that it wasn't you,
i had heard about the thing that happened, still i hoped that it wasn't true

But there in the dark,
Voices called.
Someones me

Have you heard about the city voices?
Voices that tell you,
secrets

You're eyes told of a million memories, you're my spooke of a million things,
I,
said you a cool,
you said no,
i asked you why,
you said:

Don't thrust the city voices,
voices,
that fell you,
with lies.

You said:

Don't thrust the city voices,
voices,
that fell you,
with lies.
