Mia Doi Todd, Casa Nova

I can fall in love again. I can feel the curse you cast is over. No more no more Casanova. Hip hip hurray, oh hallelujah.

I haven't changed much in these ten years. I hit my head up against the wall Of my same ol' fears, my same ol' fears, My same ol' tears. I'm breaking mirrors.

I know myself again. I remember what is good about me If I let it out of hiding,

My enemy, proven to keep me down Love as a memory of kindness And cruelty and cruelty And honesty and true beauty.

I can fall in love again.
I can feel the curse I cast is over.
No more no more Casanova.
Hip hip hurray, oh Supernova,
Supernova, Four-Leaf Clover.
