Mia Rodriguez, I LUV U

I saw a puppy in the park, reminded me of you
Tried to hug it really hard, I think I left a bruise
Always hurt the things I love, but I'm never meaning to
Never meaning to

I saw a puppy in the park, reminded me of you
Tried to hug it really hard, I think I left a bruise
Always hurt the things I love, but I'm never meaning to
Never meaning to

Kissing isn't quite enough

I love you so much, I wanna punch you in the face
I love you so much, I wonder how your blood tastes
I love you so much that it could even be mistaken for hate
When I say that I love you, oh, I love you
I love you so much, I wanna punch you in the face
