Miami Horror, I Look To You (ft. Kimbra)

See her world lit so bright See her bird take flight See her face wild and charged See her quickened heart

So if we fall, imagine that Imagination's ? So here I hold for what you are See all that I'm looking for

I look to you

The future we've found To stay here on higher ground /2x

I look to you

I wanna change the future as I look into your eyes /4x Future as I look into /2x

The future we've found To stay here on higher ground /4x

I look to you /2x

The future we've found To stay here on higher ground /2x

I look to you
