

Michael Ball, Last Night Of The World (Miss Saigon)

Alain Boublil/Claude Michel Schoenberg/Richard Maltby Jr.)
from the musical. Miss Saigon

In a place that won't let us feel In a life where nothing seems real
I have found you
I have found you
In a world that's moving too fast
In a world where nothing can last
I will hold you
I will hold you

Our lives will change when tomorrow comes Tonight our hearts drown the distant drums and we have music all right tearing the night

A song
played on a solo saxophone
A crazy sound, a lonely sound
A cry that tells us love goes on and on
played on a solo saxophone
It's telling me
to hold you tight
and dance like it's the last night of the world

On the other side of the earth
There's a place where life still has worth
I will take you I'll go with you
You won't believe all the things you'll see I know 'cause you'll see them all with me

If we're together that's when we'll hear it again

A song
A cry that tells us love goes on and on
Played on a solo saxophone
It's telling me
to hold you tight
and dance like it's the last night of the world

Dreams
they were all I ever knew Dreams
you won't need when I'm through Anywhere
we may be I will sing with you
a song...

A song played on a solo saxophone
So stay with me and hold me tight and dance like it's the last night of the world
