

Michael Bolton, She Wants You Back

Well you thought it was over
But that's not what she told me today
She said you and your pride
Man, you let it get in the way
And if things weren't bad enough
Well, she told me you were taking
Her love for granted, oh yeah

CHORUS

She wants you back, she wants you back
She wants you back, she wants you back
She wants you back, she wants you back
Again

Well you're in need of a friend
And believe me now I happen to be one
We can sit and pretend
But I know a good thing when I see one
Go to her and admit you were wrong
She'll be there 'cause she knows you belong together
Oh yeah

CHORUS

Go to her and admit you were wrong
She'll be there 'cause she knows you belong together
Oh yeah

CHORUS

Oh, she wants you back, she wants you back
She wants you back, she wants you back
She said she wants you back again

CHORUS
