

Michael Franks, I Surrender

I fly solo
The Number One's my logo
Birth of the Cool's my theme song
For me the whole love scene's wrong
I surrender
Take me prisoner right away
I'm content with you inside
I surrender
Learned my lesson the hard way:
"You can run but you can't hide"
Love is not to be denied
My heart beats slow
I kept it incognito
It's only fools who feel love
I don't believe in real love
