

Michael Franti & Spearhead, East To The West

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

One to creation, one to the sun
One to the morning, one to the wonder
One to the air and the freshness we're breathing
One to the Force and the change of the seasons
One to the mother from which all things come
One to the daughters, one to the sons
One to the father who helps us believe that Nothing's ever gonna harm you

One to the soldier who walks city streets, and
One to the soldier who fights over seas, and
One to the man who gets down on his knees and Prays to God for protection please and

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

One to the woman, one to the man
One to the culture from the time that it began
One to destruction, one to birth
One for the people who still fight for the Earth
One to the people who suffer for the needs, and
One to the rebels, to the rock and to the beats, and
One to the healer who fights the disease, and
One to the Lorax who speaks for the trees, 'cause
No amount of money, no amount of man can bring back the life, what's gone when it's done and
One to the people who rise with the sun, and
One to the people who sleep when it's gone

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around
All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around

Life is too short to make just one decision
Music's too loud for just one station

Love is too big for just one nation
AND GOD IS TOO BIG FOR JUST ONE RELIGION

One to the practice of being in the flow, and
One to the tears of the things we let go, and
One to the moment we live in right now, and
One to the East, West, North and South

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

To the East, to the West
To the North and South
To the East, to the West
One love people never gonna stop

All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around
All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around
All things seems upside down

The whole wide world keeps turning around
All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around
All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around
All things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turning around
