

Michael Jackson, Euphoria

E-U-P-H-O-R-I-A

That's the new word for today

E-U-P-H-O-R-I-A

It's very easy to say

Say Euphoria and you'll feel fine from the start

You can close your eyes

And see the world with your heart

Do what you wish, be what you are

What a victorious thrill

Wearing a smile, all of the while

Feeling the world standing still

Watch rainbows glow rest on a bed of flowers

Then dial a star

Anything's in your powers

Euphoria

Full euphoria

Knowing no ills, needing no pills

Singing a rock and roll hymn

Feeling glorious, full of love

Fine from the start

You can close your eyes

And see the world with your heart

How good to be happy and free

Living the way that you choose

Healthily and clean

Can't understand anyone having the blues

Euphoria never to feel frustration

How great to give love without invitation

Euphoria, euphoria

Long as we love each other
