

Michael Kiske, Burned Out

[M&Amp;Amp;L - Taraxes]

Black winds and blue waters
A universe of sounds
Emptiness and sunshine
It's all the same

She dreams about flowers
And opens up her mind
When she is near it's oh so clear
I'm waiting

I'm waiting for the day without a sign
I'm waiting to show the love I kept inside

She's burned out without love
She's thinking about to go
The memories the apologies and everything
So what're you gonna do girl?
Everyone thinks you're a fool child
You tried to love, it breaks your heart
breaks your heart

Sweet child come take my hand
I know the reason why you're sad
All the love I have I give to you

Come on smile, look at me
Show me what you really feel
All your tears will dry before the night

I'm waiting for the day without a sign
I'm waiting to show the love I kept inside

She's burned out without love
She's thinking about to go
The memories the apologies and everything
So what're you gonna do girl?
Everyone thinks you're a fool child
You tried to love, it breaks your heart
breaks your heart
