

Michael Kiske, Could Cry

[M&Amp;Amp;L - M. Kiske]

And they walk by - feelings mutual
If I would try - I'd try to watch those trys to move a little closer to the try

I get my handshake - it hurts the bone
I Leave the debate - long before the debate kills the conversation that was talk

I could cry
I could feel so lonely
I could cry for me
Is it good
Or is it even better
Would you cry for me, me?

If that's your vow - let's hear your prayers!
It suits us now - but now is gone and little's won if yesterday feels better now

Give a sign - a sign of giving Show your spine - We kill the beast for liberty will liberty help to kill the beast?

I could cry
I could feel so lonely
I could cry for me
Is it good
Or is it even better
Would you cry for me, me?

I kiss the end still in touch with the start
I'm coming down with the eyes on the up
I drink the sun and I eat the smart
when I got all mine!
When I got all mine!

[solo]

I could cry ...
